AS PRESENTED IN

Faith is inherent in the heart of man. However, the type of faith he has will depend largely upon his philosophy and his recognition of the spiritual, as well as the physical and mental forces which operate in life.

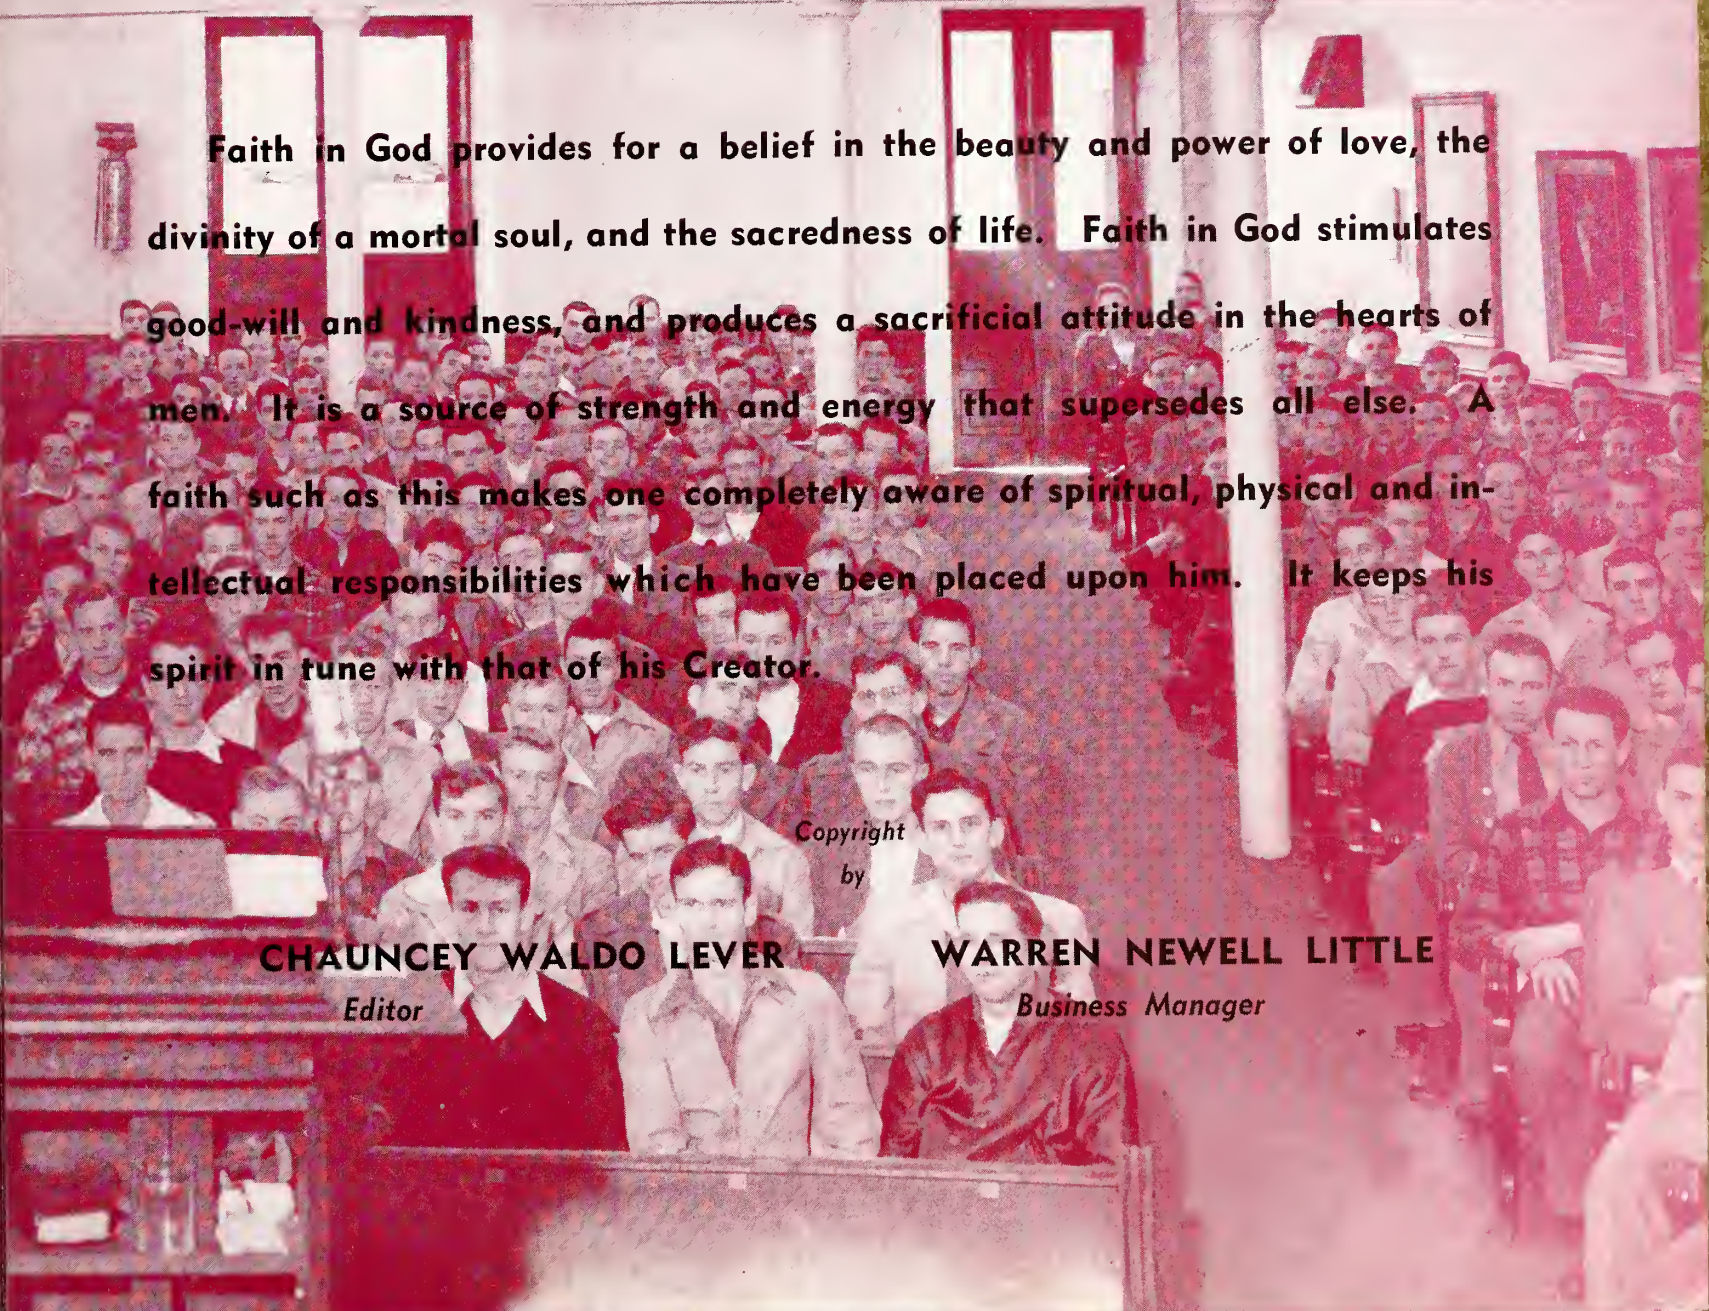

Faith in one's fellow man is the silver band of loyalty and friendship, which binds the people, who bind the nations, not in law but in understanding, to each other, solidifying in an organization of world brotherhood. This faith transcends the barriers of race, religion, creed and color. It is bigger than government, more powerful for good than are armies for evil, and definitely outweighs petty politics. An undying faith in others enables one to cling tenaciously to the rock of trust, even when the voices of other people are contradictory to the known desires of their own hearts. A faith in the integrity, the ability, and the dignity of all mankind will draw us face to face with a vivid realization of that perfected society of man "towards which all nations move." This is the faith that binds. To find it is to find the solution to the universal problem of good neighborliness.

THE 1948 BOHEMIAN

Faith in God provides for a belief in the beauty and power of love, the divinity of a mortal soul, and the sacredness of life. Faith in God stimulates good-will and kindness, and produces a sacrificial attitude in the hearts of men. It is a source of strength and energy that supersedes all else. A faith such as this makes one completely aware of spiritual, physical and intellectual responsibilities which have been placed upon him. It keeps his spirit in tune with that of his Creator.

Like the lofty trees that adorn the campus, our seven retired professors are forever a part of Wofford College. Even as it takes years to grow a giant tree, it requires time and experience for the body to show forth the impact of the soul. These revered and esteemed gentlemen have indeed "grown in grace and in the wisdom and knowledge of our Lord." To them, with our grateful tribute, we dedicate this book.

There is no way to measure the profound influence of the lives of our professors emeritus on the men of Wofford College—yesterday, today, and tomorrow. Their work has been made, and Time will exalt their worthy achievements to a new greatness.

"There is no bourn, no ultimate. The very farthest star
But rims a sea of other stars extending just as far.
There's no beginning and no end. As in the ages gone,
The greatest joy of joys shall be—the joy of going on."

The Reserve Officers Training Corps Building

The Field House

" . . . We build the ladder by which we rise
From the lowly earth to the vaulted skies."

The Main Building is the only one on the campus into which every student has entered.

Through the years it has changed its appearance. At first the Main Building was a plain brick building with steps of wood across the entire porch. Somewhere close to 1880 it was plastered on the front and the stone steps put up as they are now.

More than any others, this building is loved and revered by every alumnus. A mental picture of it is always with them; wherever they are, when their thoughts turn to the Campus, this is the picture they see. For almost a century through its doors have come boys seeking knowledge as a preparation for serviceable living and out through the same doors they have gone to play their part in Life. Here they have caught something of the standard and ideals and traditions of the College and have gone forth under the self-imposed pledge to honor and perpetuate them. In the future, whatever changes are needed in the interior to make it more serviceable will be made, but its simple, classic, majestic exterior will remain as it is today.

DR. WALTER KIRKLAND GREENE
Phi Beta Kappa

A.B., Wofford College, 1903; M.A. Vanderbilt University, 1905; A.M., Harvard University, 1921; Ph.D., Harvard University, 1923; LL.D., Mount Union College, 1943.

The President

Dr. Walter Kirkland Greene came to Wofford as President in 1942, succeeding Dr. Henry Nelson Snyder, who for forty years was president. Dr. Greene, himself a Wofford alumnus, in his brief tenure of office has demonstrated a keen insight into the needs of our institution, and already he has set in motion the machinery of the Wofford of Tomorrow Program, which will make the dreams of a bigger and better Wofford a reality.

His personality is a unique combination of scholarship, leadership, and Christian stewardship. Scholarship is reflected in his knowledge and understanding; his initiative and foresight sponsor the quality of leadership; his faith, humility, and deep religious spirituality are inspiring virtues of Christian stewardship.

Academic Dean

DR. CLARENCE CLIFFORD NORTON
Phi Beta Kappa

B.S., Millsaps College; M.A., Emory University; Ph.D., University of North Carolina.

Dr. Clarence Clifford Norton is the Academic Dean of Wofford College and has served in this capacity since 1942. He is a talented speaker, possesses a keen sense of humor, and has consistently demonstrated a sympathetic understanding of the problems which confront the many students who come to him for advice.

With Dr. Norton's annual presentation of Dicken's "A Christmas Carol," our college is enriching its tradition.

DR. CLARENCE CLIFFORD NORTON

Dean of Students

PROF. WM. RAYMOND BOURNE

A.B., Wofford College; M.A., University of North Carolina.

In this his second year as Dean of Students, Professor William Raymond Bourne has manifested his ability to maintain discipline in the largest student body in Wofford's history, which in itself is an admirable accomplishment.

In his frequent "chats" with individual students, he has emphasized a realistic approach to the problems of education.

Seven Wafford seniors and two Wafford juniors were named to be included in the 1948 edition of WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES.

The purpose of WHO'S WHO is to serve as an incentive for students to get the most out of their college careers; as a means of compensation to students for what they have already done; as a recommendation to the business world; and as a standard of measurement for students comparable to such agencies as Phi Beta Kappa and the Rhodes Scholarship Award.

It is the only means of national recognition devoid of politics, fees, and dues. The students are chosen on the basis of character, scholarship, leadership, extra-curricular activities, and possibility of future usefulness to business and society.

"He that is greatest among you shall be your servant."

The Wofford College Phi Beta Kappa Chapter was brought into existence by holders of the Phi Beta Kappa key on the campus in 1940-1941, assisted by Dr. A. M. DuPre and Dean L. H. Cox.

The members here in 1940 were Dr. O. B. Ader, Dr. H. N. Snyder, Dr. Albert Stanbury, Dr. Herbert E. Vermillion, and Dr. D. D. Wallace, who became the Charter Members of Beta of S. C. The first officers elected were:

DR. SNYDER, President
DR. WALLACE, Vice-President
DR. STANBURY, Secretary-Treasurer

A committee made up of these wearers of the key at once elected the following honorary members from the Faculty because of "... their cultural interests and intellectual attainments and in view of their unstinted and unselfish service to the college for a period of as much as fifteen years as full professors."

The chapter holds an annual dinner, usually in April, when the formal initiation ceremonies are held and the keys presented. One of last year's Phi Beta Kappa members, John Quitman Hill, has been named to a Rhodes Scholarship at Oxford University. Several others are now engaged in graduate work at various universities, including Harvard, Columbia, and Duke. The record of the members from the beginning has been one of high academic honor.

The PUBLICATIONS BOARD

"... of making many books there is no end."

The Publications Board was formed in 1935-1936 to control the finances of the student publications. The board audits the books of the three publications, and sets limits to the individual charges levied. Under the control of the board the quality of the publications has steadily increased, and the assessment to each student has been lessened.

The board was originally composed of four faculty members and four student members, with a faculty member serving as chairman. This has been changed to include four faculty and five students in order that the students may have the controlling vote.

The Pre-Medical Society was organized on November 1, 1946, for the purpose of acquainting the pre-medical students with the field of medicine and furthering their interest in the profession. Lectures by prominent persons in the field of medicine and surgery feature the monthly meetings, and one meeting each year is of the lyceum type, with the public invited to attend. Visits to local hospitals are made during the year in order to witness operations and technique.

Membership in the society is limited to junior and senior pre-medical students and is achieved only by invitation, based upon a creditable class standing, a record of worthy service, and recognition of potential ability. Pledge classes composed of freshman and sophomore pre-medical students were organized this year and are represented in the chapter by one freshman and one sophomore liaison officer chosen from the respective classes.

In 1946-1947, the lyceum type speech was delivered by the internationally prominent orthopedic specialist and chief surgeon of the Shriner's Hospital in Greenville, Dr. J. Warren White.

The annual Tuberculosis Christmas Seal Campaign, sponsored nationally by the National Tuberculosis Association, is sponsored at Wofford by the Pre-Medical Society.

The International Relations Clubs of the United States are under the Carnegie Endowment for World Peace, and their sole function is to help the students to live more harmoniously in a world community. The motto of the club, "For (My) Country Through World Peace," suggests something of the purpose of the organization.

The Wofford I. R. C. was organized in 1922. Meetings are held every other week, and the members discuss topics of national and international interest. Each spring the chapter sends delegates to the Southeast International Relations Club Conference. Maintenance of a high scholastic average is one requirement for membership.

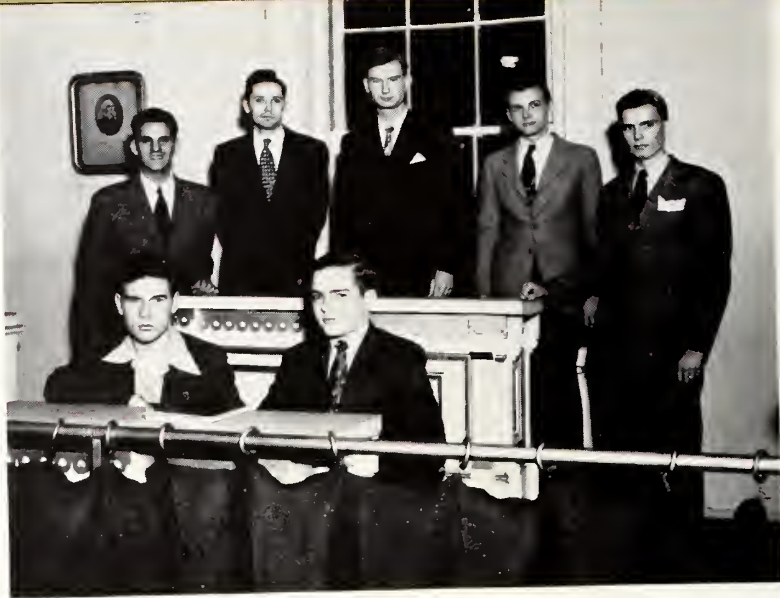

For the last two years, the Southeast Regional Secretary has come from the Wofford delegation.

PRESTON LITERARY SOCIETY

The Preston Literary Society has had a long and enviable record of service to the students of Wafford College. For almost ninety years it has served as a medium through which those students interested in debating and public speaking have found expression.

Strict parliamentary procedure is practiced in its weekly meetings and as a result of the training and experience received in this society, many men who formerly graced its halls have found public recognition and service in business, on the bench, and at the bar, as well as in the pulpit.

The Carlisle-Snyder Literary Society was formed in 1943 by a merger of the old Colhoun-Snyder and Carlisle Literary Societies, both of which have a long history of service on the Wofford Campus.

At the regular Friday evening meetings interesting programs which include debates, declamations, speeches, and discussions are presented. Each member is encouraged to develop his native talent in public expression by actively participating in the programs.

Since membership is entirely voluntary, only those students who are genuinely interested in the functions of the society maintain membership.

Each year a very select group of young men who love music are chosen to represent the college as members of the Glee Club. During the past season, the club was under the capable leadership of Professor Sam Moyer, a new member of our faculty. The annual tour of the Glee Club is recognized as one of the important and most satisfactory means of presenting Wofford College to those residing in this state, and even in this section of our country. This organization of eager, talented men, who lift their voices in song as choral members of the Wofford College Singers, made appearances in the music halls of the leading educational centers throughout South Carolina.

To make Christianity vital to every student.

A typical scene at the meetings on Thursday evenings.

"Christian Spirituality, The Foundation for Scholarship!" The S. C. A. sets as its high goal the permeation of a significant, religious awareness into the lives of the students on the campus.

The Student Christian Association is the leading religious organization at Wofford, and is the only extra-curricular activity of which every student is a member.

Thursday night is "S.C.A. Night," and a variety of programs are presented in the Recreation Hall. This group, which first organized in May, 1938, replacing the Y. M. C. A., is also instrumental in securing student speakers for weekly Chapel programs and sponsors annual Religious Emphasis Week.

The Government of the S.C.A. is vested in four executive officers, who are assisted by the chairmen of the various committees.

Miss Maria Siracusa, representing the World Student Service Fund, speaks in chapel. She was sponsored on the campus by the Student Christian Association.

Delta Phi Alpha

Delta Phi Alpha was founded by Dr. James A. Chiles at Waffard College an May 27, 1929. In the twelve years of its existence, the fraternity has grown to forty-four chapters, located in every part of the country from Maine to Georgia and from the State of Washington to Southern California. Because of its rigid requirements for admission, Delta Phi Alpha may justly be called the Phi Beta Kappa in the field of German studies.

The fraternity aims to promote the study of the German language, literature, and civilization, to further an interest in and a better understanding of the German-speaking people, and to foster a sympathetic appreciation of German culture.

The various chapters are permitted a wide latitude in carrying out their respective programs designed to further the general aims of the organization.

The purpose of Pi Gamma Mu is to improve scholarship in the social studies and to achieve synthesis therein; to inspire social service to humanity by an intelligent approach to the solution of social problems; to engender sympathy toward others with different opinions and institutions by mutual understanding; and to supplement and to support, but not to supplant existing social science organizations by promoting sociability and attendance of meetings.

Bohemian Staff

For your enjoyment The 1948 Bohemian has used koda-chrome and duo-tone photography in addition to colored art work and the regular black and white photography. For your convenience there has been added to The Bohemian for the first time in its history a complete directory of the student body, faculty, and retired faculty. In order that you might locate any page in this volume at once, we have set another precedent by having a full index in the back of the book.

The Old Gold and Black is a weekly newspaper, the aim of which is to keep the student body abreast of the latest campus news. The staff attempted to present an impartial and unbiased account of all news-worthy events during the past year. There were, however, several columns which, when coupled with frequent feature articles, and letters to the editor, added life and color to the paper. For the first time in history, The Old Gold and Black operated under a plan of co-editorship, with Mr. Ellis and Mr. Rast alternating as editor on successive weekly issues.

Journal

The Journal, Wofford's literary magazine, was founded in 1889, and since that time has been the medium through which students have expressed themselves in the literary field.

It has consistently made use of a free and easy style and has employed attractive covers, illustrations, and streamlined make-up which, when coupled with an interesting variety of short stories, poems, essays, editorials, sketches and features, make The Journal a highly readable publication, in keeping with the best literary standards.

The Spanish Society was organized in December, 1946, under the direction of Professor J. L. Salmon. Professor S. R. Graves is serving this year as faculty advisor.

Meetings are held monthly, and programs consist of plays, talks, and discussions in Spanish.

The society offers an excellent opportunity for students who desire to increase their knowledge of language, literature, and culture of the Spanish speaking countries.

The Westminster Fellowship is only one year old at Wofford, but it has already become an active, growing organization.

It is the desire of this group of young Presbyterians to attach the students of their faith more closely to their church, to acquaint the students with each other, and to represent their church on the campus.

In the fall of 1945, the Veteran's Club was formed on an all inclusive basis. This year it was decided to have all veterans eligible for membership; however, it was necessary that they express their desire to join. The result was a small club, regular meetings with small dues, and a more interested group taking part in the activities of the organization. The charter, which was drawn up this year, expresses the purpose of the club as being for the welfare of the veteran and of the college.

The Debate Team

Debating at Wofford, while not among the largest inter-collegiate activities, is considered among the most valuable to its participants. Training, in clear thinking and forceful speaking, and the experience of matching wits with young men and women of other institutions in discussions of significant problems constitute the chief charms and advantages of debating, probably the oldest of all inter-collegiate contests.

Beta Phi Chapter

The Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity was formed at Yale College in New Haven, Connecticut, on December 6, 1845, by Louis Manigault, a native of Charleston, S. C., who was the originator of the idea, and creative genius behind its development.

Since 1845, Alpha Sigma Phi has grown rapidly, with chapters throughout the U. S., and is now among the ten oldest national fraternities, with 57 active chapters, and a total membership of 18,000. Alpha Sigma Phi is a charter member of the National Interfraternity Conference, which was formed in 1909.

The Wofford chapter of Alpha Sigma Phi was formerly Alpha Theta Chapter of Alpha Kappa Pi. The two national fraternities merged on September 6, 1946.

During the year, Beta Phi Chapter enjoyed many social events which included informal parties, and the spring formal.

Psi Chapter

Delta Sigma Phi was founded at the College of the City of New York on December 10, 1899. Psi Chapter was established at Wofford College on April 17, 1916. The Psi Chapter has been continuously active, except during the war years when the college was off the campus.

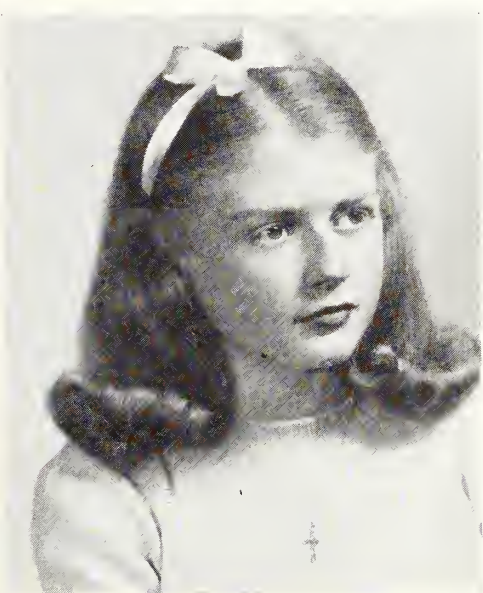

The Delta Sigs have many alumni in the city who cooperate with them in the execution of their social functions and other activities.

Delta Sigma Phi has leading chapters all over the United States and also in Canada.

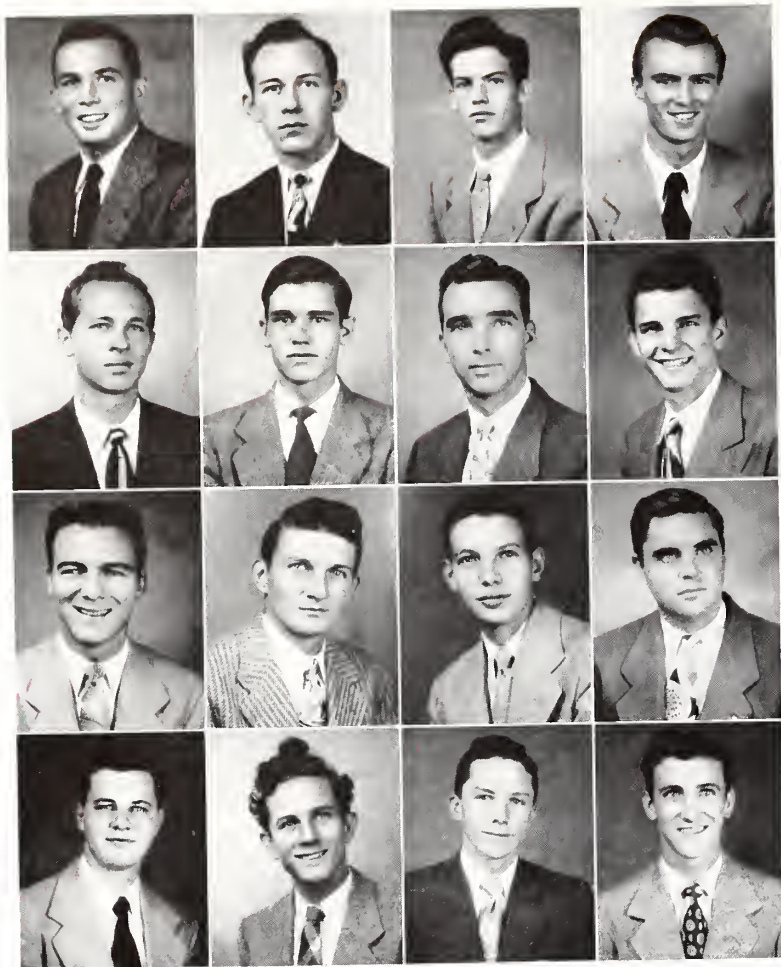

The principal social events are the annual Founder's Day Banquet, held on December 10th, and the Sailor's Ball, held in the spring.

Kappa Alpha

Kappa Alpha was founded at Washington College (now Washington and Lee) in 1865. Robert E. Lee was the spiritual founder.

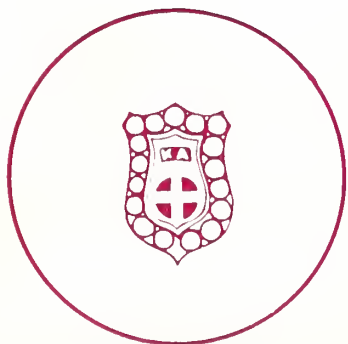

Delta Chapter of Kappa Alpha is the oldest fraternity on the campus, being founded in 1869 by a transfer student from Alpha Chapter at Washington College. It is now the third oldest of the sixty-seven chapters in all the Kappa Alpha Order.

K. A. is represented on our faculty by President Walter K. Green and Dr. C. E. Cauthen. In the city of Spartanburg, Kappa Alpha has more alumni than any other fraternity.

K. A. has many social functions during the year. The most important of these are the annual Robert E. Lee Banquet held each January nineteenth, and the Farmers Ball which is given by our Alumni.

ALPHA-NU CHAPTER

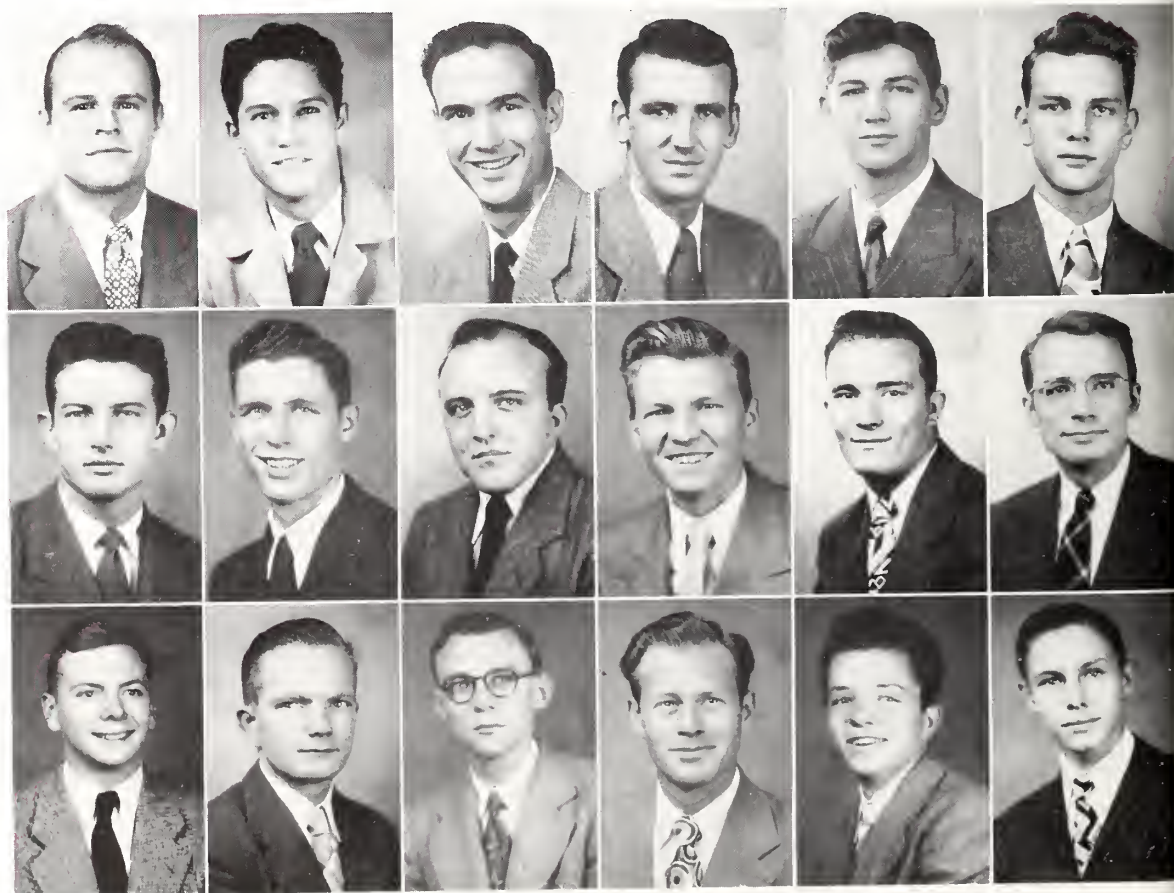

MISS MARY WINSTON GWATHMEY

The traditional European founding of the Kappa Sigma fraternity took place in the year 1400 at the University of Bologna. There, nearly 550 years ago, a group of young students at the University organized for protection against the tyrannical ruler of that time, Pope John XXIII. Kappa Sigma's first American chapter was organized at the University of Virginia on December 10, 1869. Wofford's chapter was founded in 1894.

Today, Kappa Sigma is firmly established in 110 colleges and universities in the United States and Canada. Kappa Sigma owns houses valued at over $3,000,000 and has an endowment fund of nearly half a million dollars, which is used as loans for Kappa Sigma students who need help in order to complete their education. This is by far the largest student loan fund of any fraternity.

Kappa Sigma is represented on the Wofford faculty by Professor Raymond A. Patterson and Professor Hugh T. Shockley.

Kappa Sigma at Wofford sponsors many parties and dances throughout the school year and a house party every summer. The leading event of the year is the annual banquet and dance held every February.

Phi Kappa Pi

Zeta Chapter

Phi Kappa Phi Fraternity was born in Charleston, S. C., on December 10, 1904, at the College of Charleston. There were seven men present at the first meeting.

On December 29, 1906, these same men, together with those whom they had added to their membership, met to adopt the draft of a constitution and laws which provided for a national organization. This was the first Supreme Chapter meeting, and Andrew Kroeg was elected the "Supreme" Archon.

Zeta Chapter was established at Wofford in 1911 and completed the roll of South Carolina chapters. There are now 33 chapters throughout the United States.

Sigma

S. C. Gamma Chapter

Sigma Alpha Epsilon was founded by eight scholarly men with Noble Leslie De Votie as the principle founder in the Old Mansion House at the University of Alabama, March 9, 1856. South Carolina Gamma Chapter was founded at Wofford College in 1885. The national headquarters of the fraternity is in Evanston, Ill. For the year 1943, S. C. Gamma ranked first scholastically on the Wofford campus, first in sixteen chapters of S.A.E. throughout the nation. Weekly meetings are held in the completely redecorated chapter hall in Archer Hall. The Fraternity entertains with frequent informal parties, and holds an annual banquet commemorating Founders' Day. Every spring the alumni sponsor an afternoon tea-dance and an evening formal dance.

The Wofford Dames was organized under the sponsorship of the Waffard Campus Club during the fall of 1946. Its first meeting was a tea given at the home of Mrs. Walter K. Greene. The membership is composed of the wives of all students attending Waffard College, and was first organized to bring together those girls who farmed a definite group interest in campus life. The Waffard Dames has progressed from a small group to an organized club with well-laid plans and aims. During the year 1947-48 the program committee has endeavored to present a varied selection of speakers, who addressed the ladies on topics which were entertaining as well as informative. The organization meets at Carlisle Hall on the first Wednesday of each month during the regular winter sessions, under the leadership of Miss Anne Neely, who serves as official hostess for the group. The members, as a group and as individuals, give their complete support to all campus activities, and, whenever possible, actively participate.

The R. O. T. C. Unit at Wofford was one of the very first to be activated after the passage of the National Defense Act of 1920. The Unit has been active since its establishment, but operations were on a minor scale during the latter years of World War II.

The purpose of the Unit is to produce junior officers who in time of emergency will be readily available to take over and train the nation's manpower, and if need be, to lead them in combat.

Students who successfully complete the advanced course of training and also complete four years of college are commissioned Second Lieutenants, Infantry Reserve.

This Unit is, and has been, one of high standards, and one of which the College is justly proud.

The National Society of Scabbard and Blade was founded in 1904 by five students at the University of Wisconsin. The honorary fraternity consists of 38,000 active and alumni members.

The purpose of the society is to unite in closer relationship the military departments of American universities and colleges; to preserve and develop the essential qualities of good and efficient officers; to prepare them, as educated men, to take a more active part, and to have a greater influence in the military affairs of the communities in which they may reside.

The Wofford Chapter, M Company, 6th Regiment, was activated in 1928 and has maintained an active status since that time, with the exception of four years during World War II.

Outstanding social events of the year were a steak supper held in observance of the annual Scabbard and Blade Day on October 27, and the Military Ball held in the spring.

FOOTBALL

Football, traditionally a trail-blazer in the world of collegiate sports, is once more leading the way. This time football is leading Wofford to new heights in the field. It is introducing a new era for all sports at Wofford, an era in which renewed and vigorous support will be given to the athletic program, and an era in which Wofford's teams will bring home new honor and glory.

A new feeling has invaded the campus, it is present in the classroom, in the dormitories, and most important, it is present on the playing fields. The new feeling is a product and a characteristic of this new era. Other characteristics are the abundance of good athletes on the campus, the statewide and national recognition which some have received, the very capable coaching staff, and the records which Wofford teams compiled during 1947-'48. After a disastrous season just a year ago, the "Terrible Terriers" of the gridiron bounced right back to win six of eleven games and begin the "New Era" with a bang.

COACHES

HEAD COACH PHIL DICKENS

Coming to Wofford just a year ago, Coach Phil Dickens has built a strong and worthy team out of little material, and has laid long-range plans for the Athletic Department. He has made friends of the entire student body, and has well demonstrated his coaching ability.

A former University of Tennessee grid star, he was assistant coach at Wofford from 1939 to 1941. Since that time he has coached at Tennessee, North Carolina State, Georgia Pre-flight, and Mississippi State.

Dickens advocates the "Tennessee System," a modified single wingback, and effectively installed it at Wofford this year.

Wofford is fortunate to have such an expert heading its athletic staff.

Wilbur O. Stephens is the assistant coach.

Line Coach James Myers was also a star at the University of Tennessee during his college days.

End Coach Joe Robertson is a Wofford alumnus who starred at center for the "Terriers" throughout 1940-41.

PLAYERS

LITTLE ALL-AMERICAN

DuBARD

Co-Captain of the 1947 edition of the Terrier footballers, Ken DuBard received nation-wide recognition this year with his selection to the first-string Little All-American team. This means that DuBard is generally recognized as one of the two best tackles in the nation who play for small schools.

DuBard was also easily named the best tackle in South Carolina and held that position on the All-South Carolina eleven.

Playing his fourth and final year for the Terriers, DuBard consistently proved his ability as an anchor on defense, and a blocker and "hole-opener" on offense.

He is the second Wofford athlete to be named to the Little All-American team, the first being Aubrey Faust, an end, beside whom DuBard played before the war.

"Slingin' " Tommy Sewell was named to the second-team All-South Carolina team this year as a result of his brilliant offensive ability. Sewell had a part in almost all scores made by the Wofford team this year, scoring several touchdowns and passing for many others. Individually, he scored as many points as any other man in the State.

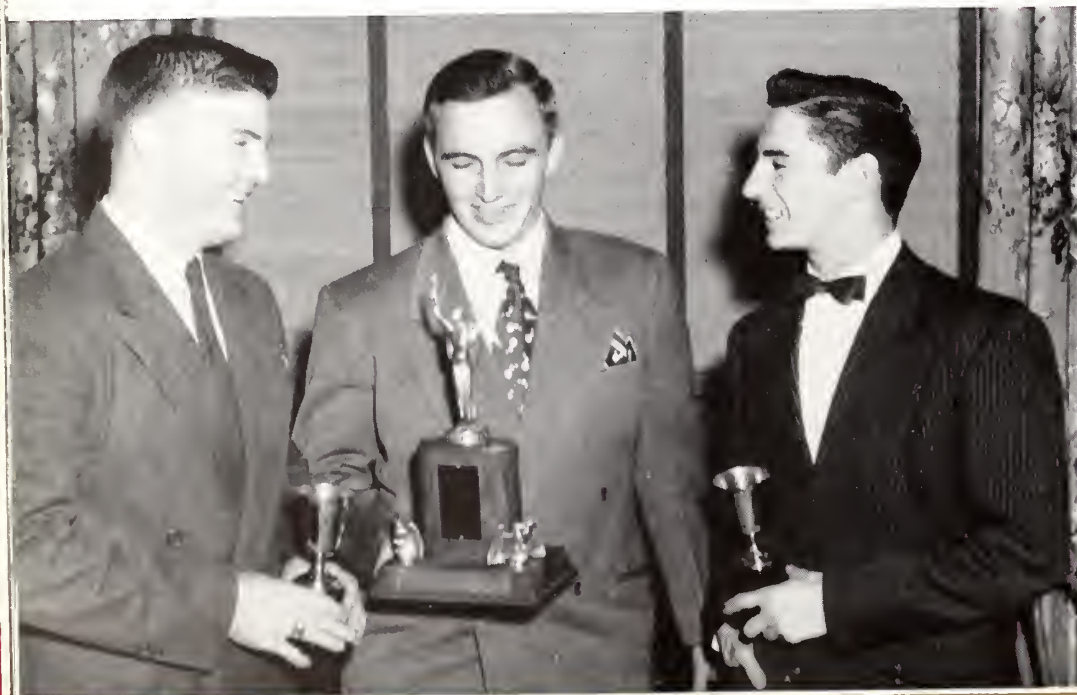

James "Bee Bee" Clary, a rugged guard, played sterling ball throughout the year and was named the "most valuable." Clary was named one of the two best linemen in South Carolina and was placed on the third team, All-State.

THE 1947 RECORD

WOFFORD 0 CATAWBA 14

In the first game of the season an inexperienced but game Wofford eleven was defeated by a strong Cotawba team which went on to set a new national record for scoring in consecutive games.

WOFFORD 19 HAMPDEN-SYDNEY 0

Hitting their offensive stride, the Terriers scored thrice in the last half on a 70-yard end-run by Sewell, Cheatham's 55-yard punt return, and a 60-yard runback of a pass interception by Quick. Quick also kicked the extra point.

WOFFORD 45 FORT JACKSON 0

Completely outclassing the Red Raiders, Wafford scored almost at will. Sewell and Mabry scored twice each, and Hilton, Harrison and P. Clark once each.

WOFFORD 7 DAVIDSON 12

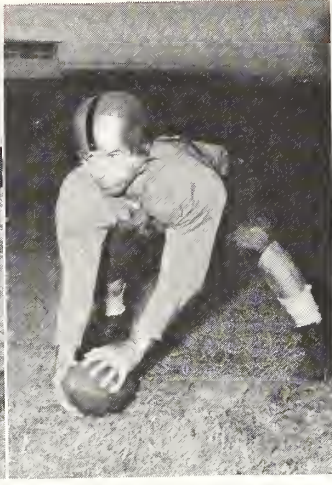

Jumping to a 7-point lead in the opening moments of the game, the Terriers threw a scare into the heavily favored Wild-cat team. Cheatham scored on a 70-yard dash and the Terriers were never far behind after that. The game ended with Waffard well into Davidsan territory.

WOFFORD 6 GUILFORD 0

In a hard-fought battle with the power-laden Quakers, neither team scored until late in the final quarter when Sewell passed to Fleming for the only tally.

KELLY MITCHELL

TONY ORGERA

WOFFORD 6 FURMAN 20

One of the most thrilling games ever to be played on Snyder Field saw Sewell go 69 yards through the whole Furman team for a touchdown on the second Wofford play from scrimmage. The score was unchanged until the final quarter when Furman capitalized on a blocked kick, a long pass and a fumble to spoil Homecoming Day for the pro-Wofford spectators.

WOFFORD 6 NEWBERRY 13

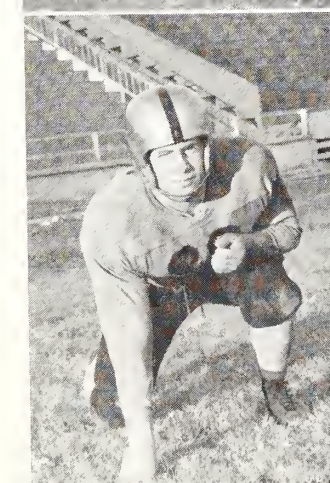

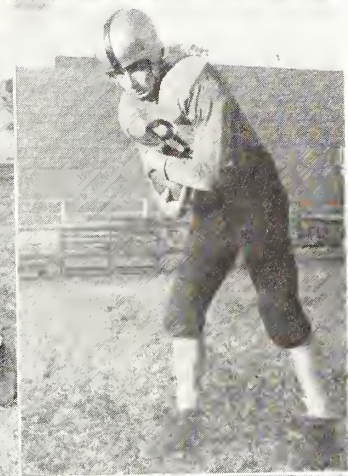

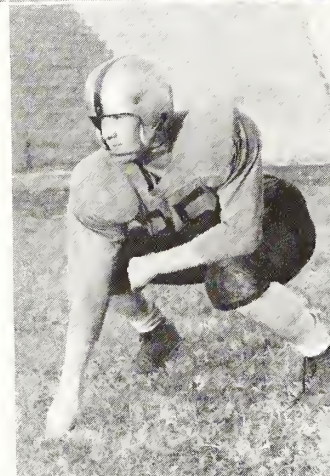

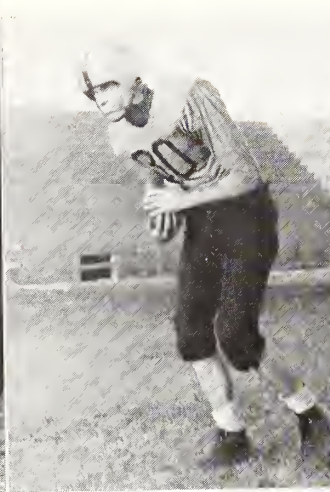

Newberry's pass attack proved too strong for the injury-ridden Terrier squad, as the Indians scored twice in the second quarter. Wofford's tally came in the last quarter when Sewell went over from the six-yard line.

WOFFORD 7 PRESBYTERIAN 12

Again the Dickensmen were defeated by a strong passing attack while they were unable to get their offense going. The game was played in the mud, the last half in a deluge of rain. Mabry and Sewell starred, Sewell going 43 yards for the marker in the second quarter.

WOFFORD 7 HIGH POINT 0

Hitting the win column once more, the balanced attack of the Methodists was too much for the North Carolinians. Sewell scored, but Rowell was the offensive star as he consistently ripped through the line for good gains. Culbreth played fine defensive ball.

WOFFORD 13 RANDOLPH-MACON 7

In a hard-fought battle, the Terriers outclassed the R-M Yellow Jockets and won the game. This game saw two future little All-American stars, Oley of R-M, and DuBard of Wofford, face one another and fight it out. Wofford touchdowns were made by Seay, who took a short pass from Sewell, and Wiles, who went through the line.

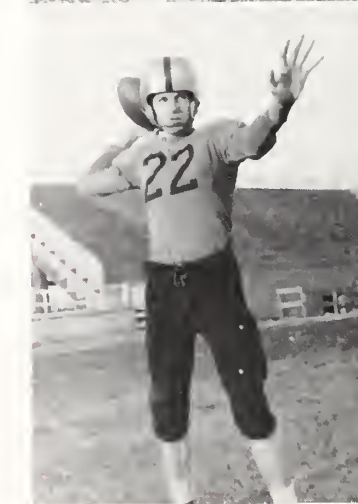

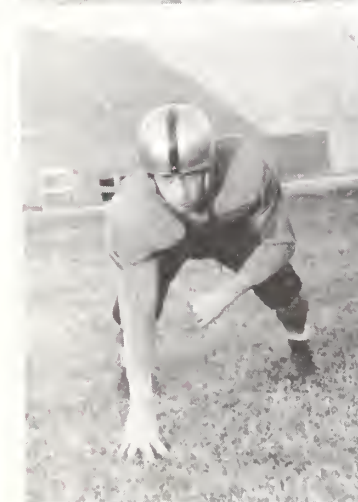

WOFFORD 26 ERSKINE 20

By far the most thrilling game of the year was played on Thanksgiving Day at Anderson. Seay took the opening kick-off on the 30-yard line and worked his way to the 45 where he was stopped, but lateraled to Sewell who sped over the remaining 55 yards for the score.

Sewell tallied again shortly after this, and passed to Gardon for another. But Erskine was not to be easily defeated and came back to take the lead, 20 to 19, in the last quarter.

Clary smashed into an Erskine man causing him to fumble and Wofford recovered. On the next play Sewell passed again, this time to Hunt, who stepped across the double stripes.

Sewell was the individual star of the day, but Seay was a demon on defense, stopping Erskine ball-carriers with "shae-string" tackles. DuBord was also an anchor in the line as he played his last game for the Terriers.

COTHRAN AND SEAY GO AFTER A REBOUND.

The "Terrible Terriers" of the hardwoods really hit their stride during the 1947-48 season, leading the state with a record of 18 wins and only six losses.

The Terrier quintet won the district S. I. A. A. championship of the mythical "Little Five."

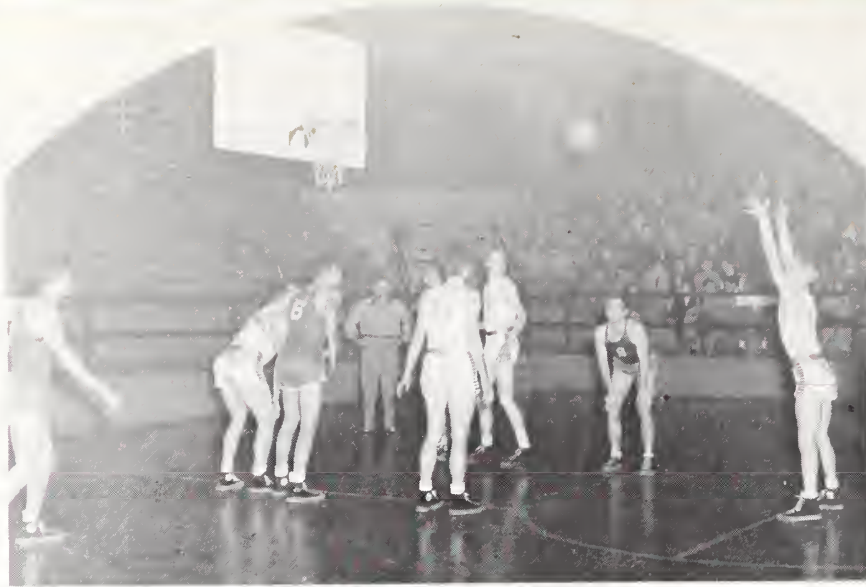

Coach Joe Robertson was blessed at the first of the season by having almost all of the previous year's team return. Also much freshman talent appeared, the best of which was Fred "Skinny" Powers. Also, freshmen Carol Beavers, Mack Patton, Lex Riddle and C. E. Morgan showed promise.

Seniors Charlie Seay and Harry "Ears" Mahaffey played their last season for the Old Gold and Black of Wofford. Both turned in sterling performances during the season, lending steadiness and balance to the Terrier floor game.

Seay received wide honors during the season and is generally recognized as the best all-round basketball player in the state. In spite of an ankle injury and several bad colds, he was again one of the leading scorers in the state.

Early season prospects for the 1948 track team were bright with the return of several lettermen, and several newcomers showed a great deal of ability.

Returning letterman and Captain Joe Whitener heads the distance runners, with Wilson Carmichael also running in that category. Whitener specializes in the one-mile run and Carmichael in the two-mile.

There are many men out for the positions in the short races such as the 100-yard dash, the 440-yard run and the 880-yard race. Among the better of these contestants are Lou McCullough, "Junior" Harrison, David Carmichael, Willis Woodham and Oscar Schoenfelt.

The pole-vaulting will be ably handled by veteran Wally Dean of last year's squad and newcomer Phil Walpole. Dean showed much ability last year.

Schoenfelt will also be out to hold down a spot in the broad-jump, one of the positions which he filled last year.

A good man for the hurdles, both the low and high, is experienced James Ballew who also filled in that spot last year.

"Willie" Varner is a dependable anchor man in the field events, active in the discus throw, the javelin throw and the shot put. Varner is also a hold-over from last year's squad.

The track team is coached by Jim Meyers.

The 1948 edition of the Terrier Baseballers is made up to a large extent of men who played on the 1947 team. Early-season prospects are for a well-balanced team built around this nucleus.

Scheduled opposition for the team includes four new opponents, Virginia Polytechnic, The Citadel, Stetson, and Georgia's Savannah Division.

Among the most promising players are the following: Chester Stephens, versatile catcher, pitcher, shortstop, second baseman and outfielder. Stephens led the '47 team in batting.

Howard Harvey, steady and dependable pitcher. Harvey had a good record during '47 also.

Also hard-hitting Third-Baseman O'Neil Casey and First-Sacker, Arthur "Lefty" Taylor.

COACH ROBERTSON INSTRUCTS IN PUTTING.

SOUTH CAROLINA INTER-COLLEGIATE CHAMPION, 1947.

The "gentleman's" game of golf gained greatly in popularity at Wofford in 1948 after the 1947 team met with a good measure of success and the "golf-bug" bit more students. Low scores and friendly rivalry characterized the keen competition among aspirants as each sought to make a berth on the team.

The lowest-shooting golfer at Wofford is P. J. Boatwright who has made a name for himself in golfing circles. Among other accomplishments, Boatwright has annexed the title of "South Carolina Inter-Collegiate Champion."

Standing: APOSTOLAKOS, JUSTICE, ROGERS, GRESHAM, RODDEY, BARRY, ELIAS, and COLLINS.

WOOD

The 1948 tennis team is out to make a place for itself among the best teams in the state. With Lettermen Frank Wood, Bill Vaughn, Jack Cannon and Bill Boyd returning, the team expects at least to retain last year's berth as the second-place team in South Carolina.

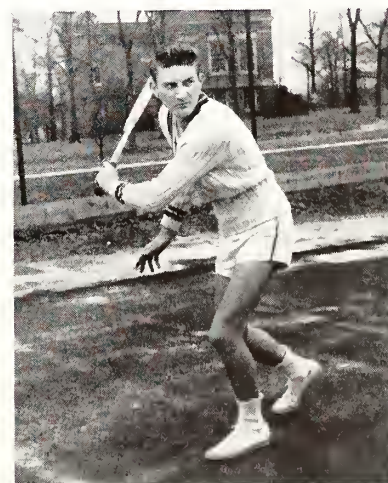

Bolstering these hopes are newcomers Lou McCullough and Orin Judy. In the doubles, Wood and Vaughn are back to pain the opposition for another year. These two were never defeated in doubles competition when playing together last year.

Scheduled for this year is a trip through Georgia and Florida.

Matches have been scheduled with Clemson, The Citadel, Davidson, Furman, High Point, Kalamazoo, Mercer, Newberry, Presbyterian, and the College of Charleston.

Intramural Trophy

The Faust-Robertson Memorial Trophy was presented to the college by the Block "W" Club. It will be presented at the end of each year to the organization which has acquired the most points under the intramural program for that year. Permanent possession will go to the organization that wins it for the most times over a ten-year period.

MURALS

Objectives of the Intramural Department

An objective of the Intramural Department is to acquire space and develop fields so that every student at Wofford can have the opportunity to compete in some form of active sport. The department is more interested in the men participating than in the outcome of the contest.

The goal of the department is to teach sportsmanship, fair play and respect for the will of others.

Through practice a man develops a fondness for sports which, in turn, give him courage and provide him with fitness of body. It creates in him a sports-habit which carries over and serves in later life as a wholesome recreation.

The student who takes full advantage of the opportunities provided in this program will have not only a decided health benefit, but will have vital improvement in his mental well-being.

Participation is entirely voluntary. Student leadership is encouraged in the administration of play with faculty guidance rather than faculty dominance being the rule.

This is a good proving-ground for democracy: Sports for all and playing instead of watching.

WARMING UP

STEPHENS MAKES A BASKET.

MAKE WAY FOR THE TIGERS!

Top Left: Ken DuBard receives a trophy from H. P. Hamilton, Alumni Association president, at the annual football banquet. The trophy was awarded in recognition of DuBard's selection to All-South Carolina and Little All-American football honors. DuBard played four years of football for Wofford and served as co-captain of the 1947 team.

Top Right: Phil Clark is shown with the trophy which he received for being the best all-around athlete at Wofford during the school year 1946-47. Clark excelled in football, baseball, and basketball.

Bottom Left: Warren "Floogie" Atrial, who has served as manager or trainer of Wofford teams since he entered school before the war. "Floogie" served with the Marines during the war and was wounded in action. He is well informed and a competent trainer, having studied athletic training while in the service and later.

Bottom Right: Charlie Seay receives a trophy from Dr. O. W. Lever, Public Relations head at Wofford, in recognition of his outstanding abilities and sportsmanship. Seay has been a credit to the school during the two years that he led our basketball teams to state leadership. Seay also played on the 1946 and 1947 football teams.

The Hall Committees

SNYDER HALL

The hall committees are probably the best example of real student government on the campus. From a select group of candidates, each dormitory chooses a governing committee, which then selects its own chairman. All dormitory problems are in the hands of this committee, which controls its hall and is the representative body of the hall to lay any complaint before the college administration. If the committee decides that some individual is too ill-behaved to live in the hall, it may at any time request him to move elsewhere. Such drastic action is rarely needed. By wise counselling, the committee members attempt always to make the offender see that he can fit reasonably into the life of the community. The maturity and sense of responsibility of the Wofford committees have helped greatly to make possible a senior-college way of life in the dormitories.

CAPTAIN JONES

Dr. DuPre's pet.

"We can have security for all our citizens if we have the will to do so and the courage to do so. We can have an America in which none is hungry, or ill housed, or insufficiently clothed, or idle, or desperate with fear for his future and that of his children.

"We can have peace with other nations if we discard the advice of the otherwise and the cynical. The world is one world, not because the old relationships between time and distance have been altered by the triumph of man over the air, but because men are the same everywhere. Peace depends upon the relationship between men, not upon the dimensions of the physical world that they inhabit.

"We can have freedom, if we make the freedom of other men our concern, because nowhere in all the world can some men be free, until everywhere all men are free. And they will be free on the shore dimly seen . . ."

The background of the entire page is a dramatic black and white illustration. It features a large, bright, billowing cloud in the center of the sky. The sky above and around the cloud is dark and filled with smaller, textured clouds. In the foreground, there are dark silhouettes of trees on both the left and right sides. In the center foreground, a man and a woman are silhouetted against the bright cloud, holding hands and looking towards it. To the right of the couple, there is a silhouette of a tree and a small building with a domed roof and a steeple. The overall mood is romantic and elegant.
